● Procedures after Submission

1. The paper submitted for the special issue should not have text identical to the papers distributed during the conference (meeting etc.). The content of the paper should be original. ¹
 2. The submitted paper will be reviewed based on the JJAP standard for an original paper. All papers submitted are not necessarily accepted in the final review.
 3. If the manuscript is not accepted for publication in the special issue by the deadline for the special issue as a consequence of revisions requested by referees, it will be considered for inclusion in a later issue of JJAP.
- Please note that the authors (or their institution) are required to pay the publication charge The publication charge entitles the author to receive 100 reprints. The publication charge must be paid even if a paper submitted to the Journal is withdrawn by the author after the printing procedure has commenced.

¹ As for Review Papers, please refer to information given by the respective conference committee.
